VISION

Please attach a written statement outlining your goals for the choir position which you are seeking. Include both possible short term and long term goals. Describe techniques you anticipate incorporating to help the choir reach these goals, including choral education and growth and keeping in mind the NYC Mission Statement and Goals.

The mission of this organization is to provide quality music instruction in a choral setting and to strive for excellence in choral performances. The choir offers an opportunity to help develop good character and self-esteem in its members hopefully resulting in life-long benefits to the individual members and society. The choir is open to youth/women from all cultural, economic, racial and religious backgrounds.

GOALS

- To provide members with an opportunity to grow musically and socially
- To strive for excellence in all performances
- To enrich the perspectives and lives of choir members through the knowledge that they, as citizens of Fairbanks, represent their community
- To introduce singers to various cultural styles and periods of music, resulting in a contribution to the cultural life in Fairbanks
- To allow choir membership for youth/women of all cultural, economic, racial and religious backgrounds
